Murray Wins State Opener

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Covington Holmes was looking forward to a basketball game. What it got was a war, and Murray didn't take any prisoners.

Underdog Murray, with guard Raymond Sims leading the way, used a nonstop offense and a ferocious press to rip 10th-ranked Holmes 100-93 Wednesday in an opening round game of the 60th Kentucky Boy's High School Basketball Tournament.

Sims scored 23 points to lead the Tigers, who also got 22 points from forward Lindsey Hudspeth and 20 from reserve Andrea Perry.

Murray spotted Holmes a 23-18 first period lead before burying the 9th Region champions 36-21 in the second period.

Holmes could get no closer than five points in the second half.

"I think some people underestimated us and the 1st Region," said Murray Coach Cary Miller. "We call our press the 'Miller Mad Dog Press.' I think the press made the game, turned it around for us."

In other first round games Wednesday, fourth-ranked Ashland held off determined Laurel County 58-52, second-rated Shelby County blitzed Virgie 68-49, and Valley clubbed Bell County 75-62.

In today's first round games, Lexington Catholic plays Union County, sixth-ranked Owensboro meets M.C.

Napier, Bath County takes on Glasgow and top-rated Ballard meets Taylor County.

It appeared the opening day of the tournament would be free of upsets after victories by Ashland, Shelby County and Valley and Covington Holmes' hot first period against Murray.

But Murray, 22-3, changed all that in the second quarter.

"Boy, that second quarter," said Holmes Coach Reynolds Flynn. "I didn't think there was a team in the state that could score 36 points on us in a quarter. We just got outshot and beat on the boards."

Sims played a major role in that second period uprising. He began things with a short jumper and, seven minutes later, turned his third theft of an inbound pass into a basket by Bill McHugh for a 50-40 Murray lead.

Holmes, which got 26 points from Doug Schloemer and 24 from Roy Meyer, made it interesting in the second half, but the Bulldogs got no closer than 82-77 after intermission.

Perry responded at that point with a layup and Sims added a free throw and a baseline jumper to pull the Tigers ahead by eight.

Fittingly, Sims hit two free throws with 19 seconds to play to push Murray into triple figures at 100-89. Holmes made it a bit more respectable with two quick baskets before the final buzzer.

"We seemed dead tonight," said Flynn. "The press bothered us considerably. We didn't crack it like we normally crack a press."

"We've used that press off and on all year," said Miller, "and we get a lot of turnovers off it."

Coffee Prices Up Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Wholesale coffee prices have shot over the $4 barrier, but consumers will have to wait several weeks to find out how much more per pound they'll have to pay in the supermarkets.

General Foods Corp., the nation's largest coffee roaster, increased the wholesale price of ground coffee by 50 cents to $4.21 a pound Wednesday. The action followed Monday's 50-cent increase to $4.18 a pound by second-largest Folger Coffee Co.

General Foods also raised its prices for Sanka and Brim ground decaffeinated coffee by 40 cents a pound. It left instant prices at $5.45 for a 10-ounce jar, the same price charged by Folger for instant.

General Foods and Folger sell more than half the coffee consumed in the United States, and their actions strongly influence the prices of other brands.

How these increases will affect the supermarket price isn't yet known, since it takes several weeks for them to reach the retail level.

Many grocers traditionally have sold coffee at or below cost to attract customers into their stores, and therefore may not pass all of the new price along to the shopper.

Coffee roasters blame the wholesale increases on the price of green coffee beans, up steadily since July 1975, when a frost destroyed many coffee trees in Brazil, the world's largest grower.

It will take three to five years for the new coffee trees planted after the frost to reach maturity, so the international market is still dealing with a low-supply situation.

Carter Gets Warm Welcome

CHARLESTON, W.Va. (AP) — President Carter got a warm welcome to West Virginia today after playing a Massachusetts milltown audience like an Irish harp.

Carter flew here from Clinton, Mass., where he wowed citizens Wednesday night at a town hall meeting that saw him at the peak of his campaign form.

The President flew to the West Virginia Capitol to meet with representatives of special interest groups concerned about coal and oil production and other energy-related questions.

An enthusiastic crowd of several thousand persons, mostly youngsters, greeted him at Charleston's hilltop airport and he reciprocated by "working the fence," shaking hands and exchanging brief greetings with his wellcomers.

Some of the youngsters waved American flags as a high school band played marching music. One group held signs saying, "Sixth Grade, Fernbank School Welcomes President Carter."

Later today, the President was scheduled to travel to New York where

Volunteers, Donations Needed For Special Spring Olympics

Both volunteer workers and financial contributions are needed for the Region I Special Spring Olympics competition for the developmentally disabled to be held at Murray State University on Saturday, April 16.

Gayle Wadlington of the Western Kentucky Community Mental Health Centers, program coordinator, said 350 to 400 participants from 17 counties in the Jackson Purchase and the Pennyriple are expected to compete in the games, beginning at 8 a. m.

"Volunteers are needed as coaches, chaperones, guides, organizers, and officials," he explained. "Amateur or professional, young or old — we can use the assistance of anyone who is interested in working with these special people."

Financial backing is provided by schools participating in the event, along with voluntary contributions, Wadlington added.

Traditional events such as track and field and swimming, as well as special wheelchair events, are planned for Roy Stewart Stadium and the Carr Health Building during the day.

Working with Wadlington as co-directors are Dr. Doris Conner, associate professor of special education, Dr. Brinda Smith, associate professor of recreation and physical education, and Brenda Hinkle, representing the Student Council for Exceptional Children, a co-sponsor of the event with Murray State.

Among the counties to have participants in the Special Spring Olympics, which includes 25 events in 10 categories, are Ballard, Caldwell, Calloway, Carlisle, Christian, Crittenden, Fulton, Graves, Hickman, Hopkins, Livingston, Lyon, Marshall, McCracken, Muhlenberg, Todd, and Trigg.

Special Olympics is a program of sports training and athletic competition for developmentally disabled children and adults. It is unique because it provides for competitors at all levels to be assigned to divisions based on both age and actual performance. Even those in the lowest divisions may advance all the way to the national finals.

Winners of the regional games will be eligible to compete in the Kentucky Special Olympics in Bowling Green in May.

Anyone wishing further information or to volunteer services or make a contribution should contact: Dr. Doris Conner, Department of Special Education, Murray State University, Murray, Ky., 42071, (502) 762-6963, or Gayle Wadlington, Western Kentucky Community Mental Health Center, South 10th Street, Mayfield, Ky., 42066, (502) 247-5346.

Applications should be completed and returned no later than April 20, 1977. There will be a limited number of applications taken on a first come basis.

Each contestant will need to solicit sponsors for the pageant, and the contestant may have as many as two sponsors, a spokesman said. The sponsors may be the child's parents or a place of business. The registration fee is $30.00 and must accompany the application.

Damon Harrison To Speak At Seminar Here

"Energy: The Problem and the Alternatives" will be the subject of a two-session seminar to be presented at Murray State University on Tuesday, March 22.

Several energy experts representing government and industry will make presentations in sessions from 2 to 4 p. m. in Room 208 of Faculty Hall and from 7 to 9 p. m. in Room 206 of the Roy Stewart Stadium.

Sponsored by the Center for Economics Education in cooperation with the Center for Continuing Education at Murray State, the seminar is open to the public, as well as to faculty, staff, and students, at no charge.

Scheduled to make presentations in the afternoon sessions are: Damon Harrison of Frankfort, Kentucky, Commissioner of Energy; Jay Dunkerley of Washington, D. C., representing Resources for the Future International Energy; and Art Coffland of Owensboro, Texas Gas economist.

On the evening program are: H. N. Stroud of Knoxville, Tenn., assistant general manager of the Tennessee Valley Authority; Mitchell Olszewski of Oak Ridge, Tenn., representing the Engineering Technology Division of Oak Ridge National Laboratory; and Bill K. Caylor of Lexington, representing the Kentucky Coal Association.

Harrison, a native of Marshall County, was named state commissioner of energy in 1975. He has also served as commissioner of the Kentucky Department of Commerce and as director of research and planning for that agency.

Emphasizing the importance of the seminar topic, Dr. Dan Harrison, director of the Center for Economics Education at Murray State, said there may be no more crucial and basic problem before us because the energy question lurks behind many other big dilemmas.

In a time when the entire nation is in search of a viable, realistic energy policy, the university community and the community-at-large might do well to take some time to consider the position of West Kentucky in regard to energy use and the development of alternatives," he noted.

Louvers May Cure A Closet's Hangups

Closets are often the orphan of building design, especially those in apartment buildings. Seldom are there enough of them to meet a family's needs. Frequently, they are located in strange, out of the way places. Sometimes, they seem to have been added as an afterthought.

But, there are ways to get the most out of apartment closets, scarce as they may be. One is to organize storage. An inventory of items stored in closets is a good place to start. The inventory may turn up quite a few items that belong at the local "flea market" or in the storage room of the apartment house.

One space saving technique for clothes closets is to put similar items together. Longer items, such as raincoats, topcoats, overcoats, furs, etc., can be placed on one side and shorter things such as suits, sport-jackets, pantsuits, blouses or shirts on the other. Extra space is left below the shorter items for storing smaller things such as umbrellas, shoes or hat boxes.

Another device that has a couple of fringe benefits involves the closet doors. In many apartments, ordinary closet doors that swing open can steal much needed floor space, especially in tight spots such as narrow hallways, small bedrooms or tiny foyers.

Wood louver doors, on the other hand, are available as folding doors, which open and close like an accordion, taking up little floor space, or as sliding doors which need no floor space.

When closed, wood louver doors create the appearance of added dimension and they can be stained or painted to match or complement interior color.

Stock wood louver doors come either fully-louvered or with louvers in the top half and eye-appealing paneling in the lower half. They are available in a wide range of sizes at local building supply dealers or home centers.

Besides their ability to save floor space and their attractiveness, wood louver doors permit the free flow of air to help prevent mildew and keep clothes fresh smelling.

Closets are often located in awkward places. With ordinary doors that swing out, they can be downright inconvenient. Replacing them with sliding wood louver doors makes access easier because they require no floor clearance. The louvers also permit the free flow of air to keep clothes fresh smelling.

Send Off Secretary—With References

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I've been married to a professional man for 20 years. (I'll call him Joe.) We have a beautiful family, and I always thought we had a good marriage. Now I find out, quite by accident, that Joe has been having an affair with his secretary for more than two years.

I've had this girl in my home, and I really liked her. Joe says that he doesn't "love" her—he loves ME—but that all professional men "fool around." Then he went on to list all his colleagues we're friendly with, saying they all have girlfriends on the side.

Joe says it's all over between him and his secretary, but she practically runs his office and he "needs" her, so he's keeping her on.

He's always told me what a super wife, mother and bed partner I was. Now he says I wasn't really all that great, but he didn't want to hurt my feelings or make me feel insecure.

Meanwhile, I can't look his secretary in the face, and I don't want to be in the company of his colleagues and their wives, knowing the men are cheating and their wives are being deceived.

Is there an answer to this nightmare?

DISILLUSIONED AND HEARTBROKEN

DEAR DIS: Your husband has behaved like a prize heel. And don't disregard the possibility that he implicated innocent colleagues to make his transgressions appear more commonplace.

All professional men do not cheat on their wives. If he "loves" you as he says he does, he will get rid of his secretary. And with the reference he can give her, one of his colleagues might be glad to hire her.

DEAR ABBY: I am 24 and am engaged to marry a man who is 40. This will be my first (and, I hope, my ONLY) wedding.

I started to plan a big, formal church wedding with all the trimmings—the kind every girl dreams about—but now I'm having second thoughts.

You see, my fiancé is a divorced man with teenaged children. He and his first wife were hastily married by a judge, so this would be his first church wedding, too. He agrees to go along with my decision.

Abby, a few of my friends have expressed surprise that I would have a big flashy wedding even though my fiancé is 40 and was previously married, and his first family lives in this rather small town.

What do the etiquette books say? And how do you feel about it?

SECOND THOUGHTS

DEAR SECOND: The etiquette books say that since this is YOUR first marriage, there are no restrictions on the kind of wedding you may have—providing your clergyman approves. I think, considering the circumstances, a less "showy" wedding would be in better taste.

DEAR ABBY: I have a dear friend who is sweet, kind and intelligent. She is such a fine person and everyone likes her, and I would really like to help her.

She has one fault. Body odor. I don't know whether she uses a deodorant; perhaps, it's caused by her taking so many vitamins. In any case, the odor even permeates her clothing.

I want so much to help her. Is there anything I can do without losing her friendship?

A FRIEND IN FLORIDA

DEAR FRIEND: Tell her in a very gentle and loving way. It would be a kindness.

For Abby's booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding," send $1 to Abigail Van Buren, 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212. Please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped (24¢) envelope.

JUMP-ROPE

Now you can jump-rope to your "heart's content," according to an article in the current issue of Family Circle, which maintains that in terms of overall exercise for the cardiovascular system, 15 minutes of jump-roping is equal to 3 sets of singles tennis, 27 holes of golf, 1 hour of ice-skating, 45 minutes of skiing, or half an hour of handball or hockey.

Your Individual Horoscope

Frances Drake

FOR FRIDAY, MARCH 18, 1977

What kind of day will tomorrow be? To find out what the stars say, read the forecast given for your birth Sign.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 20)

Give your imagination a bit more rein now. You have all the tools needed for success, so go forward—confidently hopeful of all outcomes.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 to May 21)

Favorable Venus influences give you many advantages, but you must promote your own interests to keep the ball rolling, of course. Romance in high favor.

GEMINI (May 22 to June 21)

Stellar influences stimulate your innate strength of purpose and willingness to plough through rough terrain and up steep "hills." Plan for better tomorrows.

CANCER (June 22 to July 23)

Mixed influences. All activities will have to be well-organized, before you can proceed efficiently. Emphasize composure, good judgment, delicacy of approach.

LEO (July 24 to Aug. 23)

Think constructively and reckon with all possible contingencies before taking on new enterprises. In fact, day will be better for routine matters than for unusual ventures.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 to Sept. 23)

Give consideration to ideas and methods that "clicked" before, and could again. Add a bit of glamor to presentations. Be optimistic.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 to Oct. 23)

You may not size up occupational situations as accurately as usual. Better double-check! On the personal side, romance and travel favored.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 to Nov. 22)

Some ungovernable moments indicated, but you can handle with your native intelligence and astuteness. Just be sure to keep emotions under control.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 to Dec. 21)

A good day for attaining one of your cherished goals. Someone behind the scenes is working in your interests.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20)

A fine day for teamwork. Many useful ideas will result from an exchange of views with associates. Some good news indicated in the p.m.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19)

A down-to-earth attitude needed. Don't let yourself be drawn into a whirlwind of rumor and speculation—now rife in many quarters.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20)

Don't let surface glitter beguile you. Search for facts before accepting any proposition—no matter how rosy it sounds.

YOU BORN TODAY are endowed with a high order of intellect and an extremely outgoing personality—different from most Pisceans, who are usually more introspective. You have the extreme sensitivity of the Piscean, however, and are as quick to discern the needs of others. This coupling of talents makes you a "natural" in the fields of politics, education, the law, sociology and the management of large institutions. You also have the brilliant creativity bestowed by your Sign and, properly developed, could excel in the fields of art, music or literature. Science and fields involving travel are also congenial outlets for your talents. And, governed by Neptune, you will be inevitably attracted to all things maritime. Traits to curb: moodiness and tendencies toward excessive gambling. Birthdate of: Grover Cleveland, 22nd and 24th Pres., U.S.A.

FROM THE GOVERNOR'S DESK

All Kentuckians have shared an uncommon experience in recent weeks — that of being uncomfortably cold most of the time. Some of us have shivered in our own homes, but all of us have suffered from the cruel cold and unusual snow which this winter has brought us. Indeed, records have been broken and the severity of this winter has caused unfortunate results throughout our state.

— Homes have burned and freezing temperatures have caused loss of lives.

— Numerous accidents have caused injuries.

— We have been faced with epidemics of flu.

— Thousands of Kentuckians have been put out of work.

— The severe cold has caused a record consumption of fuel to heat our homes, resulting in unusually high fuel bills which are hurting a pocketbook already strained by rising costs.

— The costs of numerous items have gone up because they are scarce.

— Water lines have frozen and ruined property.

— Cattle, horses and other animals have either frozen or drowned, breaking through ice-covered water.

— Automobiles have been wrecked.

— Substantial public damage to buildings, streets and roads has occurred.

We have had problems we did not expect and could have done without. However, we certainly would not wish them off onto someone else. It has been something of a nightmare for us, but even then our circumstances have not been as tragic as in some other states. We thought our 19 inches of snow was bad, but we can appreciate the plight of our fellow Americans in Buffalo, N. Y., who had 144 inches. Even our friends in Miami, Fla., were not prepared for the first recorded snow in their history.

While we were experiencing this unusual winter here, our friends out West have missed their usual snows, and that has caused them serious problems. Just recently I was in California, where the Governor had asked the people to curtail water usage by 25 per cent. It has not snowed in the mountains, and thus there is no snow to melt and provide the vital water supplies for the valleys.

I was in California seeking new industry for Kentucky as well as finding new markets for our many products. With the water shortage there, Kentucky with its vast supply of coal is looking even better.

The day I left California the temperature was just over 100 degrees. When I arrived in Kentucky, you know what? It was snowing hard. They told me in California that they were now having their July hot weather. Well, I am not sure what month of weather we were having when I got home. While I am now 45, I can never remember it snowing so much as it has this winter. My beloved mother-in-law tells me about the time she rode the horse to school across the field over the tops of fences on frozen snow.

As we said, a severe winter such as we have been experiencing causes substantial human misery. With burned homes, loss of life, traffic accidents, people out of work, school missed, unheated homes, and all kinds of property destroyed, our people have suffered greatly. However, with all our misery, we can look to the East and the West and find even more. While I appreciated the February sun in California, the snow in Kentucky looked awfully good when I realized they were preparing for a record drought. We can put up with a lot, but one thing we cannot do without is precious water. One of the things I told those prospective industries in California was that we have more navigable streams than any other state in the nation. I told the movie producers we had more natural beauty for their sets in Kentucky than anywhere else.

Yes, we have had a lot of problems in Kentucky this winter, but with our spirit we will tough it out with a determination that will soon heal our wounds.

Garrott's Galley 5 Calls To The President Reached Only A Sweet 5024N

By M. C. Garrott

Did you try to call President Carter the other day?

I did five times, but with no luck.

My first call was dialed at 1:12 p.m., right after he was available for calls. A sweet voice purred, "We are sorry but your call didn't go through. This is a temporary condition. We hope you will try your call again later. This is a recording, 5024N."

That's all I could accomplish for the rest of the afternoon — reaching 5024N. There must be more than one 5024Ns, though, or she's got a lot of reasons up her sleeve for calls not going through. She gave me four different ones why I couldn't reach the White House. I almost say that number in my sleep — 900-242-1611.

At 1:30 p.m., I tried again. This time 5024N's sweet voice told me, "We're sorry, but all circuits are busy now. This is a temporary condition. We hope you will try your call again. This is a recording, 5024N."

Seventeen minutes later, at 1:47 p.m., I tried for the third time. Again, I got my friend, 5024N. "We're sorry. Because of a temporary condition, your call did not go through. Please hang up and try again." I did. Two more times.

At 1:55 p.m., 5024N was still on the job. This time she told me, as she had done earlier, that all the circuits were still busy. Keep trying, though, she purred, the condition was only temporary. After trying for the fifth time at 2:36 p.m., I gave up. Sweet 5024N was still there, between me and the President.

I think President Carter came up with a masterful public relations stroke with that talking-to-the-people operation.

The icing on the cake was three days later when he called the lady in San Bernardino, Calif., to answer her question about Social Security increases. He didn't know the answer when she called that Saturday, so he got it and called her back.

The people — the common people like me — love that demonstration of humility, and I admire the President's recognition of and appreciation for this. He won't have to do that many times before he'll become unbeatable.

That was what elected Harry Truman in 1948. His touch with the people elected him, and his ability to know, understand and communicate with the people made him great.

Today In History

By The Associated Press
Today is Thursday, March 17, the 76th day of 1977. There are 289 days left in the year. This is St. Patrick's Day.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1776, British troops evacuated Boston by ship during the Revolutionary War. They had been under American siege since the Battle of Bunker Hill seven months earlier.

On this date:
In 1836, the Republic of Texas adopted a constitution.

In 1926, Brazil and Spain blocked Germany's admission to the League of Nations.

In 1938, During the Spanish Civil War, the Loyalist-held city of Barcelona was bombed.

In 1966, A U.S. midjet submarine located a hydrogen bomb which had fallen from an American bomber into the Mediterranean off Spain.

In 1970, charges were made against 22 American army officers and enlisted men in connection with the killing of civilians at My Lai in South Vietnam.

The sophisticated press has been taking potshots at President Carter virtually from his inauguration because of the openness of his religious beliefs, and now they're on his back about his desire to keep in touch with the people.

Frankly, we've needed both in our Presidents for a long time. It is refreshing to see these characteristics in the one we now have — and so openly demonstrated. Let's just hope it is for real.

What would I have asked the President had I reached him?
Nothing really.

I merely thought it would have been interesting to talk personally with the President of the United States. I probably would have been speechless had I heard him come on the phone with "Hello, M. C. How are you?" But I didn't get that opportunity. The only one I could reach was sweet-talking 5024N.

Had I reached the President, I had thought I would tell him I felt he was off to a good start as our president and that he was doing a good job. People like to hear that, and I think he would have, too.

I think I also would have told him that I was beginning to feel pretty good about things again with him in the White House, and then I was going to remind him of something. He has been quoted as saying that he intended to get out into the hinterlands from time to time, to spend some time in the small towns and keep in touch with the common herd.

I was going to tell him that West Kentucky has been a Democratic stronghold for so long the major candidates just take the folks for granted down here, and we felt it was high time for our President to come to see us.

Who knows? He just might have agreed to come. With Stewart Stadium, we've got a place where he could speak to just about everybody in West Kentucky at one time, and he could see first-hand the beauties of the Land Between the Lakes.

I think he would enjoy doing both. That's what I was going to tell him. But I couldn't get by my friend, 5024N. I couldn't even get her to give me a message to the President. She'd hang up every time before I could ask her.

Congratulations to the Murray High Tigers on their convincing victory over Covington Holmes in the first round of the Kentucky Boys High School Basketball Tournament last night.

The Tigers simply took over the game in the second quarter of the contest, combining a pressure defense with an all-out attack on the offensive boards, to compile a 100-93 victory.

The Tigers will meet Valley High School in the quarter-finals Friday afternoon. Let's go to Louisville and give them our added support.

But the money egg is practically worthless — its contents will be old shredded bills from the Federal Reserve Bank.

The National Taxpayers Union notes that the General Services Administration has spent over $1 million to buy 115 electronic flagpoles, reports a West Coast newspaper.

Each aluminum pole costs $10,000 and has a storage compartment for the flag plus a photosensitive cell activated by sunlight. When the sun rises, the flag is raised and at dusk it is lowered and replaced in the compartment.

Unfortunately, not all of them work that way, according to Rep. William Walsh, R-N.Y. He says one flagpole in New Hampshire had some problems:

"The flag compartment froze every time there was an ice storm and when the flag was flying, the photosensitive cell lowered it every time the sun went behind a cloud."

We wonder why the government spent $1 million on electronic gadgetry to replace what is probably the most time-honored patriotic tradition in our country — the raising of the American Flag.

Groups interested in participating are encouraged to preregister by contacting Land Between The Lakes at 502-924-5602. Groups may concentrate their efforts on sites of their own selection or areas can be assigned.

Each participant will receive a certificate of achievement and Land Between The Lakes, as a token of appreciation, will throw a Buffalo Feed. Each participant will receive a free buffalo dinner! Dinner will be served from 3-5 p.m. at the Fenton Airstrip just off U.S. Highway 68. Child Care For Working Parents

By F.J.L. Blasngame, M.D.

Q. Mrs. V.S. a working mother with two sons, shares her concern that more should be done to develop children programs to help her and other mothers who hold outside jobs.

The cost of living, which is rising," she says, "mounting taxes and inflation have forced me to leave home and work to add to my husband's income. What has happened to me is similar to the fate of several of our neighbors, and we worry about the effect our being away from home will have on our children. I wish our schools and churches would be more helpful."

A. You have written about an important, widespread problem. Fortunately, the federal and state governments, as well as local community organizations, are becoming increasingly aware of the need of projects and programs that can help children during after-school hours.

As you know, satisfactory arrangements often are worked out with relatives, neighbors and friends on a free or fee basis to help care for children until their parents are available. Some husbands and wives occasionally are able to arrange their work schedules so that one parent is usually available at home.

School systems in certain communities are testing programs to meet the needs of students whose parents work. Parents like you are resulting in school systems' use of their facilities for longer hours, six days a week and around the year. The feeling is growing that such expensive investments as schools should be used for more hours per year.

At the same time, school systems are being financially pressed to take care of their usual programs. The additional program to look after children of working parents could be separately financed and used as a source of more income for the schools.

It is time to increase our community concern about the children of working parents. Much can be done for them, at modest cost, if we use the available resources existing in most of our communities. Some senior citizens would find great satisfaction in frequent contact with such children.

Debunking Organic Gardening

Q. Mr. P.M. wants to know if vegetables grown on soil enriched by manure and other natural substances are more complete and adequate foods than those that are raised on soil to which has been added commercial manmade fertilizer.

A. Plants absorb the ingredients that are needed for growth and development. A bean is a bean regardless of fertilizer. If the needed ingredients are not present, the bean will not grow. If the amount of the needed substances are limited, fewer beans will grow.

No scientific evidence exists to show that foods raised with so-called natural or organic fertilizers are nutritionally superior.

Conditions Again Ripe For Fires

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — Despite a comparative lull in forest fires after last week's outbreak, conditions are again ripe for trouble and officials are taking no chances with the fires that do occur.

Rather than risk losing control of one fast-growing blaze in southeastern Kentucky, the U.S. Forest Service called in its Knoxville-based converted B-17 bomber Wednesday to drop fire-retardant chemicals. "Once a fire gets going up those slopes there's no stopping it. We'd rather not take the chance," said Bill Dixon, who is supervising fire control in the Daniel Boone National Forest.

The fire on Wolf Mountain, near the Tennessee-Kentucky border south of Williamsburg, Ky., covered about two acres when first sighted from a forest service spotter plane.

It had raged over at least 35 acres before the plane arrived to help ground crews put out the flames, Dixon said.

The plane can carry 3,000 gallons of fire retardant and can drop 500 gallons at a time. Dixon said two or three passes are enough to smother most blazes.

"It's amazing what that plane can do to a fire," he said.

Dixon said the plane is called for two or three times a week when fire danger is high in the Daniel Boone Forest.

He said the danger was rated high Wednesday in the giant eastern Kentucky woodland and would increase to very high today.

The Wolf Mountain fire was Wednesday's worst in the national forest, and fires remained few across the state compared with the number last week.

"I've got my fingers crossed," said John Rhody, associate director of the state Division of Forestry. "We're doing pretty good."

However, he added, "it is dry and it is windy, and when you have that, you have trouble."

Rhody said a few thunderstorms Tuesday night in eastern Kentucky failed to substantially reduce the danger of fire. "Too little and too scattered," he said.

Last week, firefighters battled almost 600 fires, including more than 160 both last Wednesday and last Thursday.

Weekend rains quelled the outbreak, but Rhody said fires are increasing — though not as fast — again this week.

There were 43 fires Monday and on Tuesday about 500 people battled 91 blazes that covered about 1,500 acres, Rhody said.

"So we are having a buildup. We are still in fire season and we still have fires," he said.

Rhody said the fire danger will continue, whenever the weather is dry, through mid-May, "and people will just have to watch out."

Most of the forest fires are the result of trash or field fires that get out of control, he said.

A state burning law in effect through March 15 forbids open fires within 150 feet of any woodland except between 4:30 p.m. and midnight, when winds usually die down and humidity increases.

'Fifth Amendment' Plea May Launch New Assassination Probe

WASHINGTON (AP) — A reputed underworld chief's refusal to say whether he knew in advance that President John F. Kennedy would be assassinated may launch a new congressional investigation into the long-debated Cuban-Mafia connection with the murder.

But the House Assassinations Committee's grilling of Santo Trafficante on Wednesday shed no light on how much evidence the panel has to support that connection. In a session reminiscent of the late Sen. Estes Kefauver's racketeer hearings in the 1950s, Trafficante refused to answer any questions, even after he was threatened with contempt of Congress.

The 62-year-old former Cuban gambling czar pleaded his rights under the Fifth and other amendments more than a dozen times.

The two key questions put to Trafficante — whether he knew in advance that Kennedy was to be killed and whether he knew Jack Ruby, the man who killed Lee Harvey Oswald — were raised by journalist-author George Crile III in a Washington Post article last year.

Crile, a Harper's Magazine editor, reported that a Cuban exile named Jose Aleman said Trafficante told him in September 1962 that Kennedy would be killed.

Trafficante, of Miami, was one of three underworld figures involved with the CIA in an abortive attempt to slay Cuba Premier Fidel Castro in 1960, according to the old Senate Intelligence Committee.

That committee investigated the Cuban-Mafia angle two years ago as part of its probe of CIA abuses. The committee concluded Castro was unlikely to have had a hand in Kennedy's slaying despite Castro's knowledge of underworld plots against him.

In Crile's article, Aleman, an FBI informer at the time, was quoted as saying that Trafficante charged John and Robert Kennedy, the attorney general, took graft and did not keep a bargain.

"Have you seen how his brother is hitting (Teamster President Jimmy) Hoffa, a man who is a worker, who is not a millionaire, a friend of the blue collars?" Aleman quoted Trafficante. "He doesn't know that this kind of encounter is very delicate. Mark my words, this man Kennedy is in trouble and he will get what is coming to him."

Crile reported that when Aleman argued Kennedy would be re-elected in 1964, Trafficante replied, "No, Jose, he is going to be hit."

Crile also quoted a British journalist, John Wilson, as saying that he was in a Havana prison with Trafficante in 1959 and that Jack Ruby visited Trafficante there.

Crile quoted Aleman as saying he reported the conversation to the FBI but agents took no notice of it until after Kennedy was assassinated on Nov. 22, 1963. Two FBI agents then questioned Aleman at length.

THE NEWS IN BRIEF

WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON (AP) — A reputed underworld chief's refusal to say whether he knew in advance that President John F. Kennedy would be assassinated may launch a new congressional investigation into the long-debated Cuban-Mafia connection with the murder. But the House Assassinations Committee's grilling of Santo Trafficante on Wednesday shed no light on how much evidence the panel has to support that connection. The 62-year-old former Cuban gambling czar pleaded his rights under the Fifth and other amendments more than a dozen times to questions.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The two members of Congress with the greatest say about the nation's tax laws seem headed toward a showdown over how best to help American businesses fight unemployment. Neither Sen. Russell B. Long, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, nor Rep. Al Ullman, who heads the House Ways and Means Committee, has embraced the White House proposal. That means President Carter apparently has little hope of winning with his plan.

INTERNATIONAL

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Followers of Kamal Jumblatt paralyzed the Moslem half of Beirut today with a general strike mourning the assassinated leader of the leftist forces in the Lebanese civil war. A leftist spokesman said the strike was aimed at preventing "disorders or friction that could rekindle the civil war" between right-wing Christians and the alliance of Moslem leftists and Palestinian guerrillas.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The White House has barred photographers and reporters from a United Nations reception for President Carter tonight, apparently to prevent him being caught with a representative of the Palestine Liberation Organization. Carter is already under fire from Jewish organizations because the PLO's observer to the United Nations, Hasan Abdel Rahman, has been invited to the reception. Secretary-General Kurt Waldheim is giving after a speech by the President in the General Assembly hall at U.N. headquarters.

KINSHASA, Zaire (AP) — Forces that invaded southeastern Zaire from Angola last week are advancing eastward from the three towns they occupied when they crossed the border, a U.S. Embassy spokesman said. He said 26 wives and children of American construction workers were evacuated from Kolwezi, east of the invasion forces. American missionaries still in the invaded area were "unharmed and well at last report, the embassy said."

Tigers Blast Covington 100-93

UP AND AROUND—Raymond Sims, the ramrod of the Tiger offense, puts two up and around Covington Holmes' Roy Meyer in last night's action.

Ashland, Shelby County And Valley All Advance Wednesday

Fourth-ranked Ashland held off determined Laurel County 58-52, second-rated Shelby County blitzed Virgie 68-49 and Valley clubbed Bell County 75-

62 in first round action at the Kentucky Boy's High School Basketball Tournament Wednesday.

In today's first round games, Lexington Catholic plays Union County, sixth-ranked Owensboro meets M.C. Napier, Bath County takes on Glasgow and top-rated Ballard meets Taylor County.

Defense was the key for Ashland, 29-1, which was extended by lightly regarded Laurel County.

"The key to the game was our defense in the second and third quarter," said Ashland Coach Paul Patterson. In those middle periods, his Tomcats outscored pesky Laurel County 30-19.

Center Jeff Kovach scored nine of his 16 points during that stretch, while Greg Swift pitched in half of his 12 points.

"I tell you I expect a tough game from everyone," said Patterson. "We knew we'd have a tough time playing the first game (of the tournament)."

Laurel County Coach Raymond Reed wasn't very pleased with his team's performance, but he thought officiating and a college-length floor were also factors.

"We didn't play a real good game," he said. "I don't think it mattered who we played. Whether it was Ashland or anybody, we wouldn't have won with our game today."

Center Bo Justice led Laurel County with 13 points and nine rebounds, but he was outmanned by the 6-foot-7 Kovach, who collected 17 rebounds as the Tomcats posted a convincing 39-22 board margin.

Shelby County used its speed and Norris Beckley's 19 points and 18 rebounds in rolling past Virgie, 29-2, was within 34-30 early in the second half when Beckley scored seven straight points to boost the Rockets into a 41-32 lead.

Charles Hurt, who added 16 points, took over after that by banging in three baskets late in the period to give the Rockets an unbeatable 51-35 edge at the break. The last two came off flashy passes from guard Mike Williams.

"Norris should shoot 20 or 25 times a game, but he's not that kind of player," said Shelby County Coach Tom Creamer. "I told him in the second half to move into the corner and start putting them up. He did, and he hit a couple."

"They wore us down," said Virgie's Eugene Lyons. "They pressed the whole game, and we were beaten on the boards (39-26). Shelby County has a lot of good jumpers."

Robert Newsome, one of five Newsomes on the Virgie roster, led the losers with 17 points.

Carl Decker, taking solid passes from guards Steve Page and Mark Dowden, poured in 27 points as Valley bopped Bell County.

Decker scored eight points in the first period as Valley surged to a 23-18 advantage and the Vikings were off to the races. Page scored all 13 of his points in the first half, including eight in the second period as the lead blossomed to 43-29 at the half.

Magnificent in defeat was Mike Ferguson, who scored 18 of his 25 points after intermission in a vain attempt to stem the tide.

"All year, we've gone with the half-court zone trap and man press," said Valley Coach Glenn Collie. "It worked all year for us, and it worked tonight."

"Decker is a good inside man. He seemed to be at his best tonight," he added. "Page is a good ball handler. He pulls everybody together, he's done it all year. He and Dowden work well together."

Skier Hospitalized

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — There was no change early today in the condition of ski racer Sheila McKinney.

Miss McKinney, 18, hit some hay bales Saturday while practicing for the World Cup downhill race at Heavenly Valley, Nev.

She was flown to the Sacramento Medical Center in critical condition and was taken off the critical list Monday.

The hospital said she has been unconscious and in serious condition in the neurological intensive care center since that time.

By MIKE BRANDON

Louisville — The Colonels returned to Freedom Hall Wednesday night.

Now, for those of you who think the Kentucky Colonels no longer exist, then just ask Reynolds Flynn, coach of Covington Holmes High School.

"I didn't think there was a team in Kentucky that could score 36 points off of us in one quarter," Flynn said, almost in a daze after watching his Holmes club being devastated 100-93 by Murray High—that little school somewhere down in Western Kentucky.

For Murray High, it was just another win. At least that's the way they played in their second trip ever to history rich Freedom Hall.

Pressure? Murray knew what pressure was all right. They knew the pressure that comes from playing defense, not the kind of pressure a team feels when playing in the state tournament.

Murray's zone-press tore up Holmes like Muhammad Ali would tear up Don Knotts in a boxing match. Early in the game, Tiger coach Cary Miller used his full court man-to-man press before switching to the zone.

"They broke it a few times and got easy baskets off of it but we felt if we just stayed in some sort of press, we could get them to turn it over," Miller said, amidst a mob of sportswriters.

Holmes turned it over about like a chef flipping pancakes. They were intimidated by the smaller Tigers on the boards and all over the floor for that matter as they had 26 turnovers in the game.

"I felt the success of our press and our ability to control the boards were the main factors in the game," Miller said.

There were some other main factors. They were called Raymond Sims, Andrea Perry, Bill McHugh, Richie Richardson and Lindsey Hudspeth.

"Sims did a super job in running their club," Flynn said, "he should be an all-stater and he's definitely in the running for the all-tournament team. And they certainly have a bench."

"I felt the Perry kid just dominated the game when he came in in the second quarter and the Richardson kid killed us at the free-throw line," Flynn added.

Richardson, indeed, did kill Holmes. He hit 10 of 10 from the line while on the night, Murray hit 30 of 43.

It was the free-throw shooting that boosted the Tigers into the lead in the second period. Murray led by as much as three, then fell behind by as much as seven before the first period ended with Holmes on top 23-18.

Trailing 25-20 early in the second quarter, the Tigers hit eight consecutive free throws, four by Bill McHugh, to vault to a 28-25 lead.

With four minutes left in the first half, Murray was still on top by three at 36-33. Then came an explosion that hasn't been seen since the likes of the Hindenburg.

With Richie Richardson playing the best ball of his career and Lindsey Hudspeth playing like a dog in a butcher shop, the Tigers went on a rampage and had everyone in Freedom Hall buzzing. Richardson hit two free throws, Hudspeth stole the ball off the press and hit a short jumper, Richardson crashed the offensive boards for a putback and McHugh stole the ball and scored on a break. And—before anyone really knew what had happened Murray led 50-40.

At halftime, the Tigers led 54-44 as Hudspeth had 14 points and 10 rebounds while Richardson, who came off the bench late in the first quarter when Brett Harcourt got his third foul, added ten in the first half.

The most unbelievable thing about the first half? Covington Holmes shot 18 of 25 from the field for an unorthodox .720 clip while Murray hit 21 of 43 for a .488 mark.

"That's something isn't it?" Flynn asked. "There's no question the first region was underestimated," Flynn added.

If there was any question, Murray eliminated it in the second half as they picked up from where they left off; running and running and wow and wow.

Sims turned into a tornado, twisting, spiraling and firing passes inside to Hudspeth and Perry. And while they were doing that McHugh showed why he is regarded as one of the top defensive players in the first region.

Murray's lead soared to as much as 11 points before Holmes closed to within seven, 74-67, going into the last quarter.

Murray stretched its lead to 13 early in the fourth period before Holmes battled back and closed it to five at 84-79 with 3:41 left in the game. But Sims hit for three points and the Tigers began another spurt, again pushing the lead out to as much as 13.

With 19 seconds left, Sims hit two from the free-throw line to give Murray a 100-89 lead. Holmes scored the final four points of the game to make the margin seem a bit closer than the game actually was.

Sims finished with 23 points while Hudspeth, who had 14 rebounds, added 22. Perry, who had 11 rebounds, scored 20 while McHugh hit for 17 and Richardson 14.

Murray outrebounded Holmes 44-31.

"Their size fools you. They jump bigger than what they are," Flynn said. "They were very well disciplined and executed well. They just beat the heck out of us on the boards," he added.

For Holmes, which closes its season with a 22 and 7 record, second team all-stater Doug Schloemer led the scoring with 26 points. A 6-4 junior, Schloemer hit on 11 of 18 field goal attempts and had 11 rebounds as did 6-4 senior center Roy Meyer who added 24 points.

"I think people definitely underestimated our region," Miller said. "There just hasn't been one powerhouse this year in our region and because of the balance I think people have overlooked us."

"As I've said all year, we have a seven-man starting five, and we've certainly proved that tonight. We looked small out there but we don't play as small as we looked."

"I felt we let down a little toward the end and I wasn't happy with the fact they had 93 points either. We didn't come up here for a vacation...we came to play ball," added Miller, whose Tigers will carry a 22-3 record into their 1:30 p.m. CST Friday quarter-final game against Louisville Valley.

"Our goal this year has been this; if anyone is going to beat us, they're going to have to outplay us," Miller said.

The way Murray looked Wednesday, it may be hard for anyone to beat the Tigers. And today in Louisville, the basketball fans are convinced the Colonels are back in town.

Maybe you don't make a $3,000 loan every day, but we do.

Actually, that's just a middle-size loan for us these days. We make some for less. And a lot for a lot more.

So we're not a "small-loan" company, but a large loan center. And a good one.

Homeowner loans, too.

When you're after really large amounts, the equity in your home is a valuable asset. You can use that equity to back very sizable loans from us. And that's nice to know.

Next time you want money; whatever the reason, think of us. If you're more comfortable feeling you can depend on us for small loans, we really don't mind. Because you can.

But remember, we mostly think big.

TOO LATE—Holmes' Roy Meyer is too late to block this shot by Murray High Center Frank Gilliam in state tournament action last night.

TWO MORE FREE THROWS—Richie Richardson (30) is about to get two more of his 10 free throws in last night's state tournament game. Richardson was 10 for 10 from the line in a fine performance in the Tigers' 100-93 win over Covington Holmes.

NCAA East North Carolina And Kentucky Favored To Win In Semifinals

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — North Carolina and Kentucky were favored to win semifinal games of the NCAA East Regionals tonight despite injuries which have hampered or sidelined their tallest players.

Fifth-ranked North Carolina, with 6-foot-10 center Tommy LaGarde benched by a knee injury requiring surgery, was given a four-point edge over Notre Dame's 10th ranked Fighting Irish in the feature game of the St. Patrick's day doubleheader.

In the opener, third-ranked Kentucky was rated a solid 14-point choice over 20th ranked VMI, even though 6-10 Mike Phillips has a severely sprained right wrist and 6-10 Rick Robey is recovering from a heel bruise.

Tonight's winners will play

Saturday afternoon for the championship in the University of Maryland's Cole Field House, which is expected to be packed to its 14,500 capacity for both programs.

North Carolina's Tar Heels have won the East title four times in five tries under Coach Dean Smith, who is counting on "Yonwolfsin" to take up the slack in the absence of LaGarde, the team's best rebounder who averaged 15 points a game.

"Yonwolfsin" is the contraction used by North Carolina followers for the three freshmen Smith has been alternating in LaGarde's spot—Rich Yonakor, Jeff Wolf and Steve Krafscin. Wolf is 6-10, and the others are 6-9.

North Carolina was given a boost, however, by the return of 6-6 Walter Davis, another 15-point scorer who has had three screws inserted into the forefinger of his right hand which was fractured in the Atlantic Coast Conference playoffs.

During a practice session at home Tuesday, North Carolina sparkplug Phil Ford jammed the little finger on his left hand and John Kuester, his running mate at guard, turned his ankle.

"At that point," Smith said Thursday as the Tar Heels worked out, "I was ready to call in sick. But they should be in good shape for Notre Dame."

Coach Digger Phelps of Notre Dame said he thought the game would be a matchup of his team's balanced scoring and rebounding against the consistent play of North Carolina and its hustling defense.

The Irish have six players who have scored 200 or more points, headed by guard Duck Williams, 6-9 Toby Knight and 6-9 Dave Batton, and lead the nation in rebound differential.

Phillips ran during Kentucky's workout Thursday and tried without much success to shoot left-handed while his right wrist was encased in a plastic cast. Robey ran without apparent pain.

"There's no doubt both will play," said Coach Joe Hall of Kentucky, "but I don't know if Phillips will start. There's no question that we'll need both of them."

Hall said it was a mistake not to respect VMI, a team which has risen from the ashes of a 1-25 record just five years ago and is playing in NCAA tournament play for the second consecutive season.

NCAA Mideast

Eyes Turn To Lexington As Detroit To Take On Michigan

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Both coaches agree the eyes of an entire state will be turned toward Lexington tonight when No. 12 Detroit, relatively new to basketball, takes on the veterans of top-ranked Michigan in the NCAA Mideast Regional semifinals.

Friends have called Detroit Coach Dick Vitale from all over the country with advice on how his Titans should approach the David-and-Goliath matchup with the overwhelming Wolverines.

"They've given me all kinds of suggestions and strategies," Vitale said Wednesday, a day of workouts at Lexington's Rupp Arena.

"But they didn't give me the one thing that's needed—a seven-foot tree to play the center," he said.

Vitale said the 8:15 p.m. EST Michigan-Detroit game, following the 5:37 opener between Syracuse and North Carolina-Charlotte, will be "like Chuck Wepner fighting Mohammad Ali."

"We're the underdog fighting the large national school. They have the million-dollar sports program," he said.

But Vitale, who went to work at Detroit four years ago, said the Titans, too, "have developed a pretty good basketball program."

And since the two teams never meet during the regular season—and Michigan says it is booked up through 1980—the post-season meeting "has created quite a storm in the state of Michigan," Vitale said.

"Particularly in Detroit. Basketball fever has run rampant in the city," he said. "We had 500 or 600 fans four years ago and now we're playing for packed houses."

Michigan Coach Johnny Orr agreed few Michigan residents are likely to ignore the contest. Orr called it "the greatest game for fan interest in our state's history."

Michigan comes from seven straight wins, including victories over Purdue, Marquette and Holy Cross. Detroit has lost two of its last four games. Each school has a 25-3 record.

Vitale had no intention of going to the Michigan workout. "I'd rather not watch. I'm a nervous wreck already," he said.

It's not the opposing coach who makes him nervous, he said. "I'm not staying awake worrying about Johnny Orr. I'm worrying about the slam dunk of Phil Hubbard and the speed of Ricky Green."

The Wolverines, he admitted, "are very capable of beating us by 20 or 30 points. They know how to win and they know what it is."

The 6-foot-7 Hubbard, a star on the U.S. Olympic team, is averaging almost 20 points and Green is a 20-point shooter.

Vitale said he's counting heavily on John Long, a good outside scorer who averages 20.5 points, and 6-7 Terry Tyler, "a great jumper," but will need "a solid performance out of all our players."

"We came to give 110 per cent," he said.

The opening game opponents—6th-ranked Syracuse and North Carolina-Charlotte, ranked 17th—each have 26-3 records.

Syracuse has won seven straight and 18 of its last 19, including victories over Tennessee and Louisville.

"Syracuse is big and strong and has guards quicker than mosquitoes," Rose said.

He hopes he has an answer in the talents of center Cedric (Cornbread) Maxwell, who averages 22 points and 12 rebounds and is the 16th best rebounder in the nation.

UP AND OVER—Senior Tiger Lindsey Hudspeth goes upstairs to put these two points in for Murray High in action last night against Covington Holmes.

Vets Going To School Could Wind Up In Debt To Gov't

Veterans going to school under the GI Bill could wind up in debt to the Federal government if they drop courses or receive non-punitive grades under certain conditions.

A recent Congressional amendment to the GI Bill requires the agency retroactively to cancel assistance payment for a course dropped without a grade. This applies in cases when a course is completed but the grade assigned is ignored by the school for graduation requirements.

The new regulation is a major change in the GI Bill benefit payments policy, and does not apply when the situation was caused by circumstances beyond the student's control.

The new law provides that VA may not pay educational benefits for any part of a course which is not used in computing graduation requirements.

Many students will find themselves overpaid under the GI Bill for courses from which they withdraw and for courses in which the assigned grade is not used in computing the requirements for graduation. Payments for such a course must be stopped as of the first day of the school term, or December 1, 1976, whichever date is later.

If a student withdraws from a course on April 1 under the conditions outlined, VA payments will be terminated retroactively to the beginning of the term. In the past, GI Bill payments would have been continued up to the date of withdrawal. The new law prohibits this.

Students enrolled under the GI Bill are urged not to drop a course or request a non-punitive grade until they have contacted their school's veterans affairs office. Students should fully understand what effect the withdrawal from a course or grade may have on their monthly VA checks.

The agency recommends both students and school officials provide a brief statement concerning circumstances of the withdrawal or grade assignment when reporting it to the VA.

VA will then determine the effect of the circumstances on the withdrawal, or more punitive grade, and notify the student of the action taken to adjust his or her educational benefits.

Questions Generated By Plan To Eliminate Many School Fees

FRANKFORT, Ky. (AP) — The Carroll administration's successful plan to eliminate many public school fees has generated a variety of questions on just which payments can be bypassed.

The windfall to pupils, several million dollars as a start, has a number of exceptions, and the Kentucky Education Association wants all the i's dotted and t's crossed.

The attorney general's office went to the point Wednesday of advising that the state need not pay optional and non-academic fees.

However, it fell short of details on which fees can be eliminated and which must continue to be paid by students.

The 1976 General Assembly appropriated $4.4 million for the 1976-77 school year to pay student fees under a new law. John Slattery, a KEA lawyer, asked for a list of fees for which students can be charged and those which are free.

"We do not feel it is appropriate for this office to make such a list," Asst. Atty. Gen. Robert Chenoweth said.

Chenoweth said the situation can be broadly broken down into instructional and extracurricular fees.

He said the instructional or curriculum fees are an "integral fundamental part of the elementary and secondary education" cost.

The other type, he said, are charges for materials outside of or in addition to regular academic courses.

"It would clearly seem that the state Board of Education believes the appropriation from the General Assembly is for replacement of the curriculum-instructional type of fee," Chenoweth said.

He said this view is buttressed by a policy statement of James Graham, state superintendent of public instruction.

Graham wrote all local superintendents, telling them the fee arrangement excludes fees for items of personal attire, use of musical instruments or for materials which remain the pupil's property.

"Until a larger appropriation is made for the replacement of a wider scope of student fees, we do not believe students will escape being charged for (optional) courses and projects," Chenoweth said.

In another school opinion, Herb Sparks, an Edmonston lawyer, was advised that a school principal may be demoted without a hearing if he has not served three years.

And Donald Pace of Winchester was told that as principal of a Clark County elementary school he could under normal circumstances also become a candidate for magistrate.

The state constitution does not prohibit a state employee from simultaneously holding a county office, Asst. Atty. Gen. Walter Herdman said.

ABC To Provide Training For 35 Agents In State

For the first time in its 33-year history, Kentucky's Department for Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) will soon provide formal classroom training for the 35 agents empowered to issue citations for such diverse liquor-related offenses as selling to a minor, gambling and prostitution.

The ABC and the state Department of Justice's Bureau of Training will sponsor the two-week sessions, scheduled to begin March 14, with 12 agents attending each session.

Bernard Keene, who recently was appointed ABC commissioner, said he has long favored the program. (A Nelson County native, Keene had served as the board's distilled spirits administrator since 1972.)

"I see this training as the beginning of an overall upgrading of an agent's skills. Our regulations are constantly undergoing changes and it is vital that the agent know them well. Then, too, an agent's work can be very dangerous so the course may someday save his life," Keene commented.

Keene noted that most ABC agents came to the job with a prior law enforcement background and then learned their new duties from experienced agents after some in-office briefings. Now the agents are not only required to attend the training seminars, but they will also be expected to participate in annual week-long refresher courses so as to better regulate Kentucky's 8,000 alcoholic beverage licensees.

The 74-hour basic program includes instruction in Kentucky's penal code and ABC regulations, surveillance techniques, criminal and civil liabilities and the use of firearms. Narcotics and dangerous drugs have also been included in the curriculum since a 1974 state law brought drug violations in businesses holding a license within the jurisdiction of the ABC.

Keene stressed that the ABC training will be geared toward improving compliance of Kentucky's liquor laws rather than increasing the number of citations. "The important thing is not how many violators are caught, but that they become aware of the ABC's enforcement of the regulations and then stop those violations. The worst thing we (the ABC) can do is establish a quota system for citations," he said.

Although the position does not call for it, Keene said acting ability helps. He cited a recent Frankfort-area incident in which several agents did not bathe or shave for two to three days. After pouring cheap wine over their bodies, they managed to convince a bootlegger of their "eligibility" as customers.

The ABC is empowered to revoke a license and can even close a premise. Those stern measures are rarely taken, Keene said, since the move could wipe out a licensee's entire income source. The commissioner did emphasize, however, that the ABC would not hesitate to use that power in extreme situations, as recently happened in a Kentucky murder case.

AGANA, Guam — U. S. Air Force Senior Airman Monty S. Cathey, son of Mr. and Mrs. W.B. McCuiston of 1606 Loch Lomond Drive, Murray, has arrived for duty at Andersen AFB, Guam.

Airman Cathey, a telecommunications operations specialist with a unit of the Air Force Communications Service, previously served at Laughlin AFB, Tex.

The airman is a 1972 graduate of Murray High School and attended Murray State University.

Wildflower Survey To Be Conducted

High school science students and their teachers are being asked to participate in the Second Annual Wildflower Survey.

Sponsored by the Kentucky Society of Natural History, the survey will accumulate scientific information for future use. In view of the severe winter, the society feels that results may be particularly interesting this year.

The society hopes to interest young people throughout Kentucky in the flora and ecology of their environment as they search for spring wildflowers.

Teachers will be provided with a check list of wildflowers normally in bloom in Kentucky during the month of April. Students will be asked to identify wildflowers and to indicate whether they were found in rural, suburban, or urban areas and whether they were next to a stream, next to a road, in a field or in a woods, so that it can be learned where specific wildflowers tend to grow.

Books for the school library will be awarded to the schools whose reports are judged to be outstanding.

Anyone requiring further information can contact Dr. Stan Davis, the chairman of the project, at the Biology Department, University of Louisville, Louisville, Ky. 40208.

Proving Age Requirement For Benefits

"Proving your age is an important requirement for entitlement to many Social Security benefits," according to a local spokesman for the Social Security office.

Although proof of age is often needed in disability and survivors' claims, its most common use is in support of retirement benefit claims. "An original birth certificate or baptismal record before age 5 are the preferred proofs," the spokesman said. "Birth certificates are recorded in the Bureau of Vital Statistics in the capital city of each state. A native of Kentucky born after 1910 who wishes to obtain a copy of his/her birth certificate should write to Bureau of Vital Statistics, Frankfort, KY 40601, and enclose a check or money order for $2.00. The request should provide the county and year of birth and the names of the parents. "If your birth certificate is not found in the Bureau of Vital Statistics, an excellent record to prove your age is a United States Census search. An application for a census record should be forwarded to: U.S. Dept. of Commerce, Bureau of the Census, Personal Census Service Branch, Pittsburgh, Kansas 66762; the fee required for a search of two census years is $7.50.

"School systems keep records of student's ages," according to the spokesman. "A school record may be obtained by contacting the superintendent of the respective county or city school system. A nominal fee is sometimes, though not always, required."

"A child's birth certificate may be obtained again from the State Bureau of Vital Statistics. A veteran may obtain copies of his military discharge papers by contacting his local Veterans Affairs service office."

"A record of age is kept on file with each insurance company with whom a person has a policy. Also, local Election Commissions keep records of dates of birth of registered voters."

Inmate Ruled Guilty Of Murder Attempt

PARIS, Tenn. — Terry Compton, serving a life sentence for the 1975 murder of Travis Lax, was convicted Wednesday of attempted murder in the shooting of Lax's wife, Mrs. Dathel Lax.

The jury deliberated about 10 minutes before returning a guilty verdict and imposing the maximum penalty of 6 to 21 years in the state penitentiary.

This was the third time that Compton, 23, has stood trial in connection with the Aug. 4, 1975, incidents when two homes in the Buchanan community were burglarized and Lax was killed. Mrs. Lax received a shotgun blast in her shoulder that same night.

In January of last year Compton was sentenced to death in the electric chair for Lax' murder. It was commuted to life imprisonment by Gov. Ray Blanton after the state's death penalty was declared unconstitutional.

Compton's codefendant, 21-year-old Donald Ray Scott, was convicted of second-degree murder last year and handed a 20-year sentence. In November the two stood trial here and were found guilty of the burglary of the Clayton Lamb home for which Compton was sentenced to 5 to 10 years and Scott from 3 to 10.

Compton and Scott were originally set to be tried together on the attempted murder charge, but Circuit Court Judge Dick Jerman granted separate trials for the two Murray men.

Scott, who is expected to plead guilty when his trial comes up in July, appeared as a witness for the state Wednesday telling the jury that he and Compton burglarized the two Buchanan homes and Compton shot Mrs. Lax when they were surprised during the burglary by the Laxes returning home.

Prosecution witnesses were cautioned to speak only of events relating to the shooting of Mrs. Lax. Jerman warned the jury to consider Wednesday's testimony independent of reported testimony from the earlier murder and burglary trials.

Scott said he was carrying a shotgun stolen at the Lamb home when Mr. and Mrs. Lax returned home from church. Compton first told him to shoot, Scott said, and then grabbed the gun and shot Mrs. Lax.

Carter Visits Virginia

he is to address the United Nations.

The stop in the capital of the Mountaineer state was part of a two-day "meet-the-people" trip that began Wednesday with a nationally televised town hall meeting in hilly Clinton, Mass., a town of 13,500.

The grinning President, sporting a green-tinted carnation in his lapel, stepped before about 800 townfolk and answered questions for 90 minutes. He seemed to wow his St. Patrick's Day eve audience in a town where Irish Catholics make up the largest ethnic group.

Carter even was applauded when he promised, in a state that long cherished strict anti-birth control laws, that a welfare revision program to be unveiled Sept. 30 will "provide a permanent nationwide system of family planning" with birth control "opportunities for those who believe in them."

He answered questions on local problems, economics and world affairs. His only major pronouncement appeared to be his statement that an "ultimate requirement for a Middle East peace" is to resolve what he termed "the Palestinian problem."

He said: "There has to be a homeland provided for Palestinian refugees who have suffered for many, many years."

There was no immediate elaboration on what may have been an offhand remark suggesting that he believes Palestinians should have territory of their own.

However, Carter declared that "up to this moment" the Palestinians deny Israel's right to exist and are publicly committed to destroying the Jewish state.

As during the 1976 vote quest, Carter spent the night in a private home, in the three-story Victorian frame house of Irish, Catholic, Democratic beer distributor Edward Thompson and his wife, who gathered their eight children and five grandchildren for the occasion.

Carter seemed to win over his town hall audience and a police-estimated 4,000 others standing outside, with his very first words:

"A number of weeks ago I told my staff to choose an average American city for me to start with my people-to-people effort. They made a terrible mistake because this is no average city. This is an extraordinary city."

He drew no louder applause except when he took care to introduce his traveling companion for the day, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass.
